Let It Rock at the Crossroads of Rock 'N' Roll Receives Accolade Award

Producer / Director Steve Thomson is proud to announce that his company Backstage Productions International is one of this year's recipients of a prestigious Accolade Award in the category of Television Documentary.

The Accolade is an independent, international award competition entering its fifth year. It recognizes television professionals who demonstrate exceptional achievement in craft and creativity. The goal of The Accolade is to discover and honor those who produce standout entertainment and those who contribute to social change and humanitarian efforts.

The documentary also made an impression with the Smithsonian Institution's Rock 'N' Soul Museum in Memphis, Tennessee. The Museum's Executive Director, John Doyale had this to say: "Akin to the way that the intersection of legendary boulevards Highway 61 and Beale Street ignited the world-changing explosion of rock and soul music, Let It Rock at the Crossroads of Rock 'N' Roll transports us through a spell-binding documentary where both the music history and legendary interviews and the performances converge."

The Documentary is currently available on DVD distributed by Eagle Entertainment. Thomson will be attending MIP TV in Cannes seeking Distribution in available markets. In Canada, the Documentary has aired on BRAVO!, Canadian Learning Television and ACCESS.
